

CHANGES TO CAREEGO – June 27, 2011

Careego to Focus on Business and Institutional clients

After careful review and consideration, Careego has determined that effective June 27th 2011, it will no longer offer its services to consumers. Going forward, Careego will focus its efforts, resources and tools to support the needs of its business-to-business and institutional clients.

Careego Resources Still Available to Registered Members

As valued members of the Careego community, we are pleased to offer continued full access to services for individual Basic and Premium members registered prior to June 27th 2011. Please note the new log-in page instead of the home page you are familiar with. Sign-in using your current user name and password.

Careego will review the database every six months and will only retain active memberships. So if you want to remain an active member, please log-in at least once every six months using your current log-in and password.

Career Transition, Post-Secondary, Post-Graduate, Alumni, and Association Members

Please note the new log-in page instead of the home page you are familiar with. Sign-in using your current user name and password. As a valued member of Careego, we are pleased to offer you continued full access to the free resources available on the Careego website at the end of your current program.

Non-Registered Visitors

After careful review and consideration, Careego will now focus its efforts, resources and tools to support the needs of its business-to-business and institutional clients. Public registration for new memberships is now no longer available.
